How to purchase an Atol?

Flexible payment and delivery policy

Purchasing an Atol Aurora is a simple and flexible process. Start by reserving a slot in the production line with a small deposit, then specify your options, colors, and other details.

As your production slot nears, you can either confirm it and make the next payment or defer production to a later date at no additional cost.

Once your plane is ready and gleaming, you can visit Halli in beautiful central Finland to fly it home or arrange delivery through us.
